

CROSSROADS CHURCH AIKEN ELDER NOMINATIONS

Keith Richardson

Keith was raised in a Christian home and brought up to know and love God. He was saved just before his 7th birthday but really cemented his faith in Jesus when he went to college in Atlanta at the Georgia Institute of Technology.

After college, Keith got a job in Philadelphia, PA, where he met his wife Nicole. After marriage, the two became involved in ministry to students and married couples at Calvary Chapel in the Philadelphia suburbs and continued that ministry after they moved to Georgia in 2010.

The Richardsons moved to Aiken in 2016 and now have five children: Samuel, Sarah, Gabrielle, Anna, and Bethany. They have attended Crossroads since June 2016 where Keith has taught Sunday School and served as a Deacon and Treasurer since 2017.

Keith is passionate about Biblically-based marriages and families and looks forward to finding more opportunities to strengthen them in the Crossroads congregation.
